

Setting the Prisoners Free

Acts 16:11-40

- In this passage Paul and his companions minister in the city of Philippi.
- The first convert to Christianity is Lydia.
- The slave girl is held captive by a demon and by her masters.
- The slave girl's masters are held captive by their greed.
- What contrast can we make between the slave girl and her masters?

- Paul and Silas refuse to be held captive by their circumstances.
- What contrast can we make between Paul and Silas and the other prisoners in jail?

- The jailer is released from the bondage of his sin.
- The prisoners in the Philippian jail are released from the bondage of their guilt.
- What do Paul, Silas, the jailer, and the prisoners all have in common?

- The magistrates remain in bondage to their politics.
- Write on back how Jesus has set you free.
