Welcome, Visitors!

We're glad you're here! To learn more about Eagle River Grace, please take a Welcome Folder from the table at the back of the sanctuary, and feel free to contact our elders, or visit our website at ergrace.org. There is a nursery available down the hall and there are children's bulletins and crayons at the back of the sanctuary.

Aletheia and Eikon

Young men and women (ages 12 and up) are invited to join Eikon—for guys, and Aletheia—for girls. They meet every other Tuesday night, at Eagle River Grace, from 6:30-8:30, for a time of learning, discussion, and community, to grow as image-bearers of Christ. Please contact the leaders if you have questions.

Awana News

Awana Sparks meet this Wednesday, October 7, at 6:30pm.

Thanksgiving Family Fellowship Bonfire

Plans for our Thanksgiving Family Bonfire celebration on November 21 are heating up—even if the temperatures aren't! The pyrotechnical experts of Eikon will be providing plenty of outdoor warmth as we enjoy pie and hot drinks. Festive music is planned, though it may come down to acapella hymns of gratefulness, depending on weather and COVID-19 casualties. The event will be from 2 to 4pm, with most of the festivities happening in the first hour. Lawn chairs are encouraged. A section facing the fire will be reserved for cars so that people may attend that way, if they prefer. Church restrooms will be open, but no indoor activities are planned.

If you would like to perform a song or skit, juggle flaming batons, recite a poem or scripture—or need to borrow a pair of water skis for the event—contact Mike Remillard at 854-8214.

We'll need plenty of pies—any and all types of pies are welcome! If you are able to contribute pie(s), please contact Mary Trimble at trimble@mtaonline.net or 696-2578 by Wednesday, November 18, at the latest.

Tree of Thanks

In our foyer is a tree trunk with bare branches. Our entire Eagle River Grace family is invited to help create a leafy testament of praise to God by taking one or two of the leaves in the basket, writing something for which you're thankful on it, and attaching it to one of the branches with a bent paper clip. Baskets with leaves and paper clips are in the foyer.

I learned about Eagle River Grace from:

Love, INC Thanksgiving Blessing

The Turkey Meter is up, and we are collecting for the Love, INC dinners they supply to neighbors in need. This year, we will give at least 100 turkeys (at $10 per turkey) and 300 gospel tracts. Our goal will be reached when there are at least 100 turkeys on the wall—but Love, INC will be glad to accept more! To donate, put the word “turkey” on your check and add it to the offering basket in the back of the sanctuary. Next Sunday, November 15, will be our last Sunday to contribute!

Operation Christmas Child

SHOEBOXES! Operation Christmas Child time is here! Please see the display in the foyer for boxes and information on how to pack your box. Final drop off day at Eagle River Grace is November 18. Please contact Anne Kincaid at anne@terntech.com with any questions.

Our Mission:

We are a Bible-teaching church that endeavors to build strong families and followers of Christ by enjoying and worshipping God; by empowering one another to form solid, honest relationships; and by embracing the world with the love of Christ.
