Welcome, Visitors!

We’re glad you’re here! To learn more about Eagle River Grace, please take a Welcome Folder from the table at the back of the sanctuary, and feel free to contact our elders, or visit our website at ergrace.org. There is a nursery available down the hall and there are children’s bulletins and crayons at the back of the sanctuary.

Please Pray

This Tuesday, December 29, Eagle River Grace would normally lead and participate in the service at the Anchorage Gospel Rescue Mission. As the Mission is unable to welcome outside groups to lead their nightly chapel services, Pastor John LaMantia is covering the worship schedule until further notice. In lieu of sending a team to lead the service, we invite everyone to pray for the Mission that night. We also invite the families of our church to contribute non-perishable lunch staples for the Mission to use in providing for anyone who needs an evening carry out meal: tuna, PB & J, fruit or pudding cups, chips, pretzels, cookies, mayonnaise, juice boxes and brown bags. There will be deposit box in the foyer next week for donations.

New Year's Eve—Eagle River Grace Style Bible Story Videos!

Since you’ve all been working on your Bible Story skit (wink, wink)... here’s how to send in your video: Before noon on December 31, upload your video to your personal cloud storage and send the link for it to office@ergrace.net. If that doesn’t work for you, send an email and we’ll reply with a site to which you can upload your video. Wondering what this is all about? Read on...

Join Eagle River Grace in some New Year’s Eve fun! Put on your creative thinking caps and gather a troupe of thespians. Select a Bible story that encourages you to know and love God more, and act it out. Record a 5-minute-or-less video beginning with “This is a true story from the Word of God.” Title the video with the reference.

On New Year’s Eve, get ready to sit back and enjoy the show. At 7pm, either come to the church, or join a Zoom watch party to see the videos together. If you plan to watch at home, pick up a bag from the foyer containing noise makers, popcorn, and scoring cards to rate the performances. The winning troupe gets all the live Christmas trees from church families planted in their front yard.
